

Recreational Figure Skating – Active for Life Pilot Program

This program is intended to provide the recreational skater with further development of Figure Skating skills. This is a NEW program to provide group lessons to the skaters wishing to further develop their skating skills in a fun, recreational and safe environment. Skaters must have completed the CanSkate Stage 4 level or demonstrate equivalent ability. Coaching will be in a group lesson format. On-ice sessions will be in circuit and station formats. Skaters will be able to develop in the group setting while still attaining personal goals.

Classes are 45 minutes in length and are held on Fridays at 4:00-4:45pm and Sundays at 1:35-2:20 pm

Jan. 3/12 – May 6/12

(Please note: Friday session will finish April 27th)
